In these circumstances neither the advance nor the continuance of a scholarship becomes possible [No more scholarships have been granted for Women Judge Varadappa Sastry & Subbarao as well as Kt. Ramaya. Shd all go to the same Fund & well the debit balance on account before & pointed that this shd not be done but means either taking up the corpus of the Fund or a loan from State Fund In the former case it was thought undesirable & in the latter case indeed shd be covered - Hence under approved recommendations of Govt for the 5th of the 3 Govt that the candidates shd not even be considered any case when there are no funds Some clear understanding necessary]

My dear Mr Balasundaram Iyer

Here is a letter from Mr Paramasiva Iyer about extending the scholarship of his son Kailasam on account of his failure this year Will you kindly let me know if the Government is willing to grant the request of Mr Paramasiva Iyer to advance one quarter's scholarship (£50) pending a report from Mr Arnold the Educational Adviser at the India Office

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr Shama Rao

I regret very much to inform you that my son Kailasam failed to pass his final examination for the A R C P of the Royal College of Science He puts it down to the stratigraphy paper having been practically and unexpectedly confined to continental geology with which he has no practical familiarity as his Professors took him only to geologically important spots in England Scotland and Wales I cannot however shake off the impression that his being great at sports in the home of sports has something to do with his failure and I would suggest that Mr Arnold may be requested to report on the causes of his failure and whether he may be given an extension of scholarship with advantage to the State Meantime if the Government are not altogether disinclined to condone his recent ill-success I request that the Comptroller may be instructed early to remit through Messrs Coutts & Co a quarter's stipend so as to enable him to draw the same same by 1st October I shall thank you for an early reply and to oblige.
